

LOCAL. EMPIRICAL. CONNECTED.

The RESOLVE Network is a global consortium of researchers, research organizations, policymakers and practitioners committed to empirically-driven, locally-defined research on the drivers of violent extremism and sources of community resilience. Our partners work across Africa, Asia, the Middle East, and parts of Europe, and conducting research and providing insights on violent extremism and conflict.

ELEVATING RESEARCH. INFORMING POLICY & PRACTICE.

RESOLVE is a resource hub for researchers, practitioners, and policymakers in need of nuanced, multidisciplinary, empirical approaches to analyze the drivers of violent extremism. RESOLVE's suite of research products and activities provide key insights on violent extremism by establishing connections and asking key questions critical to elevating the field and informing P/CVE activities undertaken by policymakers, practitioners, and peers.

RESOLVE is housed at the U.S. Institute of Peace, building upon the Institute's decades-long legacy of deep engagement in conflict affected communities.

OUR PARTNERS

Afghanistan Research and Evaluation Unit

Africa Policy Institute

Bangladesh Enterprise Institute

BRAC Institute of Governance and Development

Center for Middle Eastern Strategic Studies

Center for Research and Security Studies

Center for the Study of Religion and Conflict, Arizona State University

European Institute of Peace

Geneva Centre for Security Policy

Georgetown Institute for Women, Peace, and Security, Georgetown University

Global Public Policy Institute

Hedayah

Institute for Security Studies

International Centre for Counter-Terrorism

International Crisis Group

International Peace and Security Institute

Joan B. Kroc Institute for Peace and Justice, University of San Diego

Kosovar Centre for Security Studies

Pak Institute for Peace Studies

Royal United Services Institute

Small Arms Survey

Stockholm International Peace Research Institute

U.S. Institute of Peace

West African Research Center

RESOLVE collaborates across regions, disciplines, and organizations to expand the knowledge base and support locally-defined research on the drivers of violent extremism.

PEERS / PARTNERSHIPS

RESOLVE partnerships and networks provide resources and facilitate connections to promote more nuanced and locally-driven research and projects. With our partners, RESOLVE:

- Hosts in-person meetings and expert forums to highlight new insights and research findings,
- Convenes regional research agenda setting working groups, and
- Connects local research organizations and researchers with other P/CVE actors.

Contact us at partnerships@resolvenet.org to learn more about organizational partnerships.

PRACTITIONERS / CAPACITY BUILDING & ELEVATING RESEARCH

RESOLVE capacity building efforts and resources bridge the gap between research and programming, providing opportunities , trainings, advice, and rigorous review to elevate the findings of local researchers informing research, practice, and policy at all levels.

- Regional and country-specific research by local research organizations and researchers
- P/CVE Research Training & Curriculum
- Research Advisory Council

POLICYMAKERS / ANALYSIS

RESOLVE analytic products enhance current knowledge and fill gaps in our understanding of violent extremism—globally and in local contexts—to provide information critical to policymakers addressing complex challenges. RESOLVE produces regular and project specific products including:

- Research Briefs
- Policy Notes
- Mapping Papers
- Fact Sheets
- What We're Reading Digest
- RESOLVE INSIGHTS Blog

Contact us at resolve@resolvenet.org to learn more about our capacity building efforts, our research, and our analytical products.